Spiritual birth of Christ Mind	Death to the Ego	Gate of the Law	Gate of Enlightenment
At the Eastern Gate, we are made new and given an opportunity to resurrect through the birthing of the Christ Mind.	At the Northern Gate, we jump off the precipice of our former belief enclosure encasements.	At the Western Gate, we take on the karmic burdens of our past unknowing for transmutation.	At the Southern Gate, we bring down all the energy we have raised up through the chakras for integration.
Here we put into action that which has been born into consciousness during the Easter drama. The harvest of the prior season is made into new wine through our marriage with Truth. This is then poured into new skins to nourish us on our spiraling, cyclic journey of remembering our Divine Self.	By harvesting the grains of truth reaped at the Eastern Gate, we discover and remove the weeds of distortion that have taken root in our garden.	Autumn is the season to heal the karmic energies in the basement of our undersoul. Here we are given an opportunity to make restitution for our misdeeds of the past through acts of selfless service.	This is where we plant the seeds of truth harvested at the Northern Gate. To plant the seeds of truth takes courage, for we do not know if they will bear fruit. Those who fear the truth will attempt to block the way through criticizing and judgment. It is only through knowing ourselves that we can stand strong.
Anything that remains of the lower self will be burned away through the initiation of fire at the Northern Gate.	If we pass the initiations at the Northern Gate, we will be given an opportunity to make atonement at the Western Gate.	If our spirit rises to the call, we will be given an opportunity to make a giant leap in growth at the Southern Gate.	This is the foundation needed to move beyond the limiting beliefs of the little ego to be born anew at the Eastern Gate.
