Voice tones - contain irritating magnetisms offend the tonal receptivity of the hearer. If one has moved with the spiritual tides, his voice ceases to resound the primitive tones which create the chaos set up through raucous or ill-timed speaking. Until man lives at one with his soul's pulsation, the diaphragm will send the primitive tones of the senses and emotions into the larynx. The voice tones of the speaker will be colored by the soiled magnetisms emanating from the primitive brain. The austere speaker is a fearful man who would be righteous. Staccato speakers who chop their words harms the nerve reflexes of the listener. One who has a whining voice has the voice of a weakling and a wheedler who, through repeated pressures and irritations, achieves his ends. (See Larynx and Diaphragm for more descriptions of voice tones.)

Violin, Viola, Cello - are over directed by the Cherubim angels.

Volcano (dc) - opening akasic record that is very hot.
